FLASHBACK QUARTER HIGHLIGHTS

As we look back at Q1 for Newday, we are so thankful for each of you and your involvement with Newday. When we live out One Another Matters Most, we witness positive changes and growth within our community, which then extends outward like ripples in a pond.

During Q1, The MomCo provided a space where moms from all walks of life gathered for meaningful adult conversations. Our Grow Groups, spanning from KIDSMIN all the way up to adults, chose to make time to meet up and dig deeper—together. Each of our ministries serves a distinct purpose: fostering relationships, showing love, and keeping our focus on God. After all, isn't that what "church" is fundamentally about—loving God and loving others?

Our growth wasn't just horizontal; it was also vertical. On January 1, we embarked on a collective Bible reading plan. We firmly believe that the Bible holds the answers we seek and is a precious gift from God. As we immerse ourselves in its teachings, our understanding of God deepens, and so does our relationship with Him.

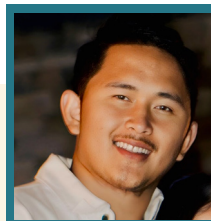

As we step into Q2, let's continue doing life together, whether it's reaching out to someone new with a simple hello, extending an invitation to worship together, or supporting our ministries through volunteering or financial contributions. Together, let's keep growing Newday for Jesus!
